

TIE Social Entrepreneurs Group and Tantric Bistro sponsor mondays@Tantric

Promoting Boston's Social Entrepreneurs

Bringing hope to areas of conflict

Meet a number of innovative organizations that are working to bring hope, foster peace and empower people around the world.

- Hear their amazing stories.
- Meet others interested in supporting social impact
- Build your social network
- Get engaged!

When: March 1, 2010. 6.30 pm onwards. First Monday of the Month

Where: Tantric India Bistro, 123 Stuart St. Boston MA 02116

Register at: <http://www.meetup.com/Social-Entrepreneurs-Group-Boston/>

Cover Charge(at the door): $10 includes appetizers.

Organizations attending:

- EDWON - Empower Dalit Women of Nepal - <http://www.edwon.org/>
EDWON works to improve the lives of Dalit (low caste) women in rural Nepal by enabling them to fight for their human rights and raise their standard of living. EDWON believes women's empowerment is the key to empowerment for the whole community.
- Peacetones - <http://www.peacetones.org/>
PeaceTones assists artists in developing nations to help their local communities. PeaceTones uses the availability of cultural intellectual property (music and art which can be easily digitalized) in developing areas to generate money for community development and peace building where the artists live.
- Peace in Focus - <http://www.peaceinfocus.org/>
Peace in Focus works to build critical life skills and healthy relationships among youth from communities around the world afflicted by violence, inequality, and transition.
- Prosperity Candle <http://prosperitycandle.com/>
Peace and stability are more critical today than ever. Prosperity Candle's mission is to build long-term partnerships with women entrepreneurs living in places torn by conflict. We work with determined individuals who seek to rebuild their lives, provide for their families, and achieve security and wellbeing through self-reliance.

